ROUTES DU BONHEUR The Legendary West, trip across The Rockies

In the past, the Rocky Mountains were an obstacle to the progress of the frontiersmen in their conquest of the West; today, they are a destination rich in natural beauty, with spots for hiking and climbing, as well as prestigious ski resorts. Between the Great Plains of Montana. nicknamed "Big Sky Country", Wyoming, with its nuances of color, preserved ecosystem, grizzly bears and moose, and Colorado with its canyons, valleys and snow-covered mountains, the Rockies have reinvented themselves as the ultimate paradise for all outdoor enthusiasts...

Magee Homestead

Hotel and restaurant in the country. With log cabins scattered under the trees, an avalanche of cosy cushions and blankets, carefully preserved rustic furniture and hunting trophies hanging over the mantle — you know that you have arrived in the Far West! Magee Homestead is a real Wyoming ranch, where cattle has been raised and grains grown since the early 1900s. Even the newly renovated individual cabins once housed cowboys in their time. Today, this luxe prairie hideaway is devoted to leisure and rejuvenation, whether for a romantic getaway or a group adventure. For an ultimate pleasure, savour the delicious cuisine featuring ingredients produced at the ranch or from the surrounding Rockies, as the sun sets on the horizon.
