ROUTES DU BONHEUR An immersion into Belgian gastronomy

Known as the 'capital of Europe', Brussels represents an approach to gastronomy that's appreciative of an incredibly wide variety of culinary cultures. Travelling through the northeast of Belgium demands the finest gourmands stop at chip shops, bars, craft breweries and Michelin-starred restaurants alike. The journey continues in museums with splendid paintings of still lifes and in the unique chalet atmosphere of beautiful Christmas markets. Belgium vibrates to the rhythm of dishes that are never pretentious but often very tasty.

1 BRUSSELS — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Culinary tourism has developed enormously in the Belgian capital in recent years. Young chefs and new restaurants have progressively reinvented classic dishes including cervelas sausages, chicory au gratin, vol-au-vents or shrimp croquettes. Every fall, the Eat Festival brings together around sixty chefs in the city for four days, to the delight of gourmands...

Hotel Franq

Hotel and restaurant in town. Just like the city of Antwerp, Hotel Franq combines the historical charm of a neoclassical building with the most advanced contemporary design. The cathedral, a miracle of scale and lightness that houses two paintings by Rubens, is just a stone's throw away, as are the original concept stores that emerged in the city and set the trend. Franq is the ideal pied-à-terre to discover the city for a weekend. In addition to its upscale rooms and excellent service, the hotel is a welcoming and lively place to stay. Enjoy a cocktail at the bar or on the intimate terrace before savouring a gourmet dinner at the elegant restaurant.

Weekly closing :

Restaurant: lunch from Saturday to Monday, Monday evening, Sunday evening.

Kasteel van Ordingen

Hotel and restaurant in town. Beyond the sheer beauty of Kasteel van Ordingen, the remarkable hospitality of its owner, Richard Sleurs, is such that one feels immediately at home. Like the lord of the castle, enjoy a splendid holiday between the cities of Liege, Maastricht and Brussels. Gilding, antiques and Flemish Renaissance architecture set the scene for this exceptional hotel, which has been lavishly restored and modernised, as evidenced by its 32 rooms and suites designed by the famous interior designer Pieter Porters. Ideal for a relaxing family break or a romantic weekend, enjoy an intimate Vespa ride or a leisurely jaunt on an electric bicycle. Wind through the orchards and hills to discover the lush green nature and beautiful landscape of the province of Limburg. In the evening, Kasteel van Ordingen lights up and an unforgettable dinner awaits in the Aurum gourmet restaurant. Known for his flavoursome, responsible and highly creative cuisine, the talented chef Gary Kirchens will delight all with his array of deliciously bold dishes.

Weekly closing :
