

ROUTES DU BONHEUR Canada, one country, two universes

Can you imagine a greater contrast, or a more beautiful journey, than that offered by this remarkable immersion into Canada? Just two destinations, but an unexpected wealth of differences. Between cosmopolitan Toronto and the wild island of Fogo, in northern Newfoundland; and between a majestic late-19th-century villa and one of the most modern structures in North America. Yet there is a unique link shared by each culture: that of being entirely tuned to nature and embracing every season.

1 CAMBRIDGE — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Langdon Hall Country House Hotel and Spa

Restaurant and hotel in the country. “Epicurean” and “romantic” are the words that best describe Langdon Hall: warm interiors with silky fabrics and wood paneling, tranquil grounds with century-old trees and a pond reflecting the elegant manor house... In the kitchen, every detail counts. Each meal is unforgettable, transforming the finest local ingredients into sophisticated dishes that are as elegant as the setting. For added relaxation, the spa offers sublime body and beauty treatments and there are guided visits to an extraordinary garden. Just a 90-minute drive from Toronto and the Niagara area, this is the place for those who love beauty.

2 FOGO ISLAND — 4 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Fogo Island Inn

Fogo Island Inn welcomes guests wishing to reconnect with wild nature and themselves. During full-board stays of a minimum of three nights, they can discover the riches of this unique and unspoiled environment, through unforgettable adventures and cultural experiences led by members of the local community. With its unique regenerative operating model, the property donates all of its profits to Shorefast, a Canadian charity which works toward the economic development of the island. Everything in the hotel has been carefully considered, from the architecture to furniture and colorful upholstery, which combine to create a refined and contemporary cocoon. Overlooking the Atlantic Ocean, huge bay windows allow you to enjoy the magical panoramas offered by the seven seasons that punctuate each year on the island. At Fogo Island Inn restaurant, enjoy refined dishes while watching whales breach the waves and icebergs drift in the distance. On the menu, discover a unique interpretation of local seasonal gastronomy, with 80 percent of ingredients sourced locally. Fogo Island Inn is a destination at the ends of the earth that you'll find difficult to leave.
