1 DEERFIELD BEACH, FLORIDA — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Royal Blues Hotel

Hotel and restaurant on the seafont. The blue of the awnings stands out against the white of the frontage, reflecting the contrast between the water and the sparkling sands: the Royal Blues Hotel, on the oceanfront on Florida's East coast, is a veritable ode to the sea. Each of this boutique hotel's guest rooms offers splendid ocean views – an invitation to saunter down to the beach or head for the Deerfield Beach Fishing Pier. The flowing lines of the architecture, contemporary works of art and furniture in combinations of wood, leather and marble are all reminiscent of a yacht. Chanson Restaurant, with its creative world cuisine, gives seafood pride of place. Its interior boasts an impressive saltwater aquarium overhead.

Weekly closing :

Restaurant: Monday evening and Tuesday evening.

2 BAHAMAS — 3 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Tiamo Resort

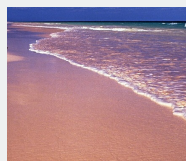

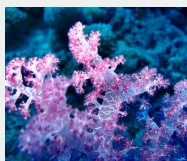

Hotel and restaurant on the seafloor. Arriving at Tiamo means diving head first into the azure waters of The Bahamas and letting your thoughts melt away. Its eleven villas, all made of pine and covered with coconut thatch, will soon have you basking in this eco-friendly Robinson Crusoe-style adventure. From the intimate Starlight Villa nestled in lush vegetation to the Cool Villas perched on stilts among the mangroves and swept by the refreshing sea breeze of a protected cove, Tiamo is a dreamscape of pristine sand and coral reefs. A paradise for diving enthusiasts, who can spend their days swimming with stingrays, sawfish and parrot fish, the island is also the world's bonefish capital. This astonishing fish cleverly disappears into the sun's reflections, requiring the greatest of skill to be caught. It is an exciting challenge done always with the highest respect for responsible fishing and environmental protection standards.

4 LONG BAY, ANGUILLA — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Quintessence Hotel

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. Overlooking one of the most beautiful beaches in the world, the Quintessence Hotel lives up to its name. Located on the tropical island of Anguilla-known as one of the pearls of the Lesser Antilles-this intimate haven of peace has been tastefully decorated with Caribbean art, giving guests a homely feel while in paradise. Woodwork and furniture made from local timbers lend each of the suites and villas an authentic and warm character. All guest rooms benefit from private access to the hotel's lush gardens, as well as the incomparable Long Bay, considered the most photogenic of the island's 33 beaches. For travelers seeking a tranquil disconnection from their regular life, choosing whether to cool off in the infinity pool or the turquoise sea may be the only dilemma they'll face. The chef of the Quintessence Hotel rounds out this unforgettable experience with Franco-Caribbean cuisine created using local ingredients from artisan producers.

5 ST BARTS — 3 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Hôtel Le Toiny

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. True idleness means getting up at 6 am so you have more time to do nothing," wrote Tristan Bernard. This is the kind of desire Le Toiny arouses, a tropical paradise on the hills of St. Barts at the heart of a 42-acre palm grove. You will find your refuge in one of the villa-suites, each with its own infinity pool and an exceptional Caribbean ocean view, or at the Hotel's new beach with cocktails and lounge chairs. With toes in the sand, under the coccolobas and beach huts, lounge around with delight and admire the surfers as they ride the waves of St. Barts' wild and authentic coast. The restaurant, for its part, elevates with great artistry the flavours of a simple, contemporary cuisine, infused with the timeless elegance of the Caribbean.

6 DOMINICA, PORTSMOUTH — 3 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Secret Bay

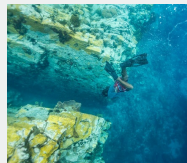

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. Secret Bay wears its name well. Its residential-style villas represent a secluded paradise of intimacy and romance for guests in search of the ultimate, off-the-radar getaway. Hidden among the trees of the lush rainforest of Dominica, these stunning residences overlook the Caribbean Sea from the heights of a breath-taking clifftop promontory with coveted access to a “secret” beach. Designed by the famous architect Fruto Vivas, built from sustainably-sourced tropical hardwoods and radiating around a central restaurant and spa, the fully-appointed villas blend effortlessly into the unspoiled landscape, each with a private plunge pool and dedicated villa host or "butler", on-call concierge, chefs and guides. Generous floor plans enable seamless indoor-outdoor living with an aura of casual coastal elegance; and panoramic terraces, hammocks and daybeds are positioned to maximize vistas from your own tropical retreat.
