1 LITTLE TORCH KEY, FLORIDA — 2 NIGHTS

( 1 property available )

Little Palm Island Resort & Spa

From Miami to Key West, the main road through the Florida Keys connects a string of islands that straddle the Atlantic to one side and the Gulf of Mexico on the other. A true private islet covered in coconut palms, Little Palm Island Resort & Spa almost seems to float on the sea. A five-minute boat ride from Little Torch Key is all it takes to dock at the pontoon and embrace the tropical atmosphere of this small resort, exclusively for adults. Setting foot on the sands of Little Palm Island feels like being admitted to a hidden sanctuary. Thatched-roof bungalows accommodate rooms and suites, all of which open onto nature through large bay windows. Louvred blinds, ceiling fans, weathered teak furniture and white linen curtains channel a chic, bohemian spirit, and guests will find no televisions or telephones in the rooms—the hotel has been designed according to a ‘no news, no shoes’ formula, to promote genuine disconnections with real life. Dinners take place in the restaurant overlooking the beach or—for the ultimate in romantic moments—directly on the sand. The resort’s enviable setting is an authentically preserved oasis which benefits from a program working to restore the coral reef and protect its precious fauna.

2 DEERFIELD BEACH, FLORIDA — 1 NIGHT

( 1 property available )

Royal Blues Hotel

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. TEMPORARY CLOSURE The blue of the awnings stands out against the white of the frontage, reflecting the contrast between the water and the sparkling sands: the Royal Blues Hotel, on the oceanfront on Florida's East coast, is a veritable ode to the sea. Each of this boutique hotel's guest rooms offers splendid ocean views – an invitation to saunter down to the beach or head for the Deerfield Beach Fishing Pier. The flowing lines of the architecture, contemporary works of art and furniture in combinations of wood, leather and marble are all reminiscent of a yacht. Chanson Restaurant, with its creative world cuisine, gives seafood pride of place. Its interior boasts an impressive saltwater aquarium overhead.

3 BAHAMAS — 2 NIGHTS

( 1 property available )

The Cove Eleuthera

The Cove Eleuthera hotel lies along two enchanting private coves edged in white sand on the island of the same name in the Bahamas. Scattered across verdant acres of sun-warmed tranquility are gleaming white lodges built like Bahamian homes. They hold a handful of suites, furnished in contemporary style with understated, soothing colors, along with four villas, three of which have private pools. The two restaurants, both with panoramic views, serve a variety of cuisines in which the only thing competing with the creativity of the chef is the freshness of the ingredients. Enjoy an Asian-inspired menu at Freedom Restaurant & Sushi Bar or grilled fish served on the terrace at Gregory Town Grill, along with a tropical cocktail at The Point Bar as the sun drops slowly into the ocean. Daytime activities at The Cove Eleuthera include coral-reef diving, paddleboarding, sea kayaking, hiking and birdwatching, a relaxing massage at the spa, or a yoga class to greet the rising sun.

Quintessence Hotel

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. Overlooking one of the most beautiful beaches in the world, the Quintessence Hotel lives up to its name. Located on the tropical island of Anguilla-known as one of the pearls of the Lesser Antilles-this intimate haven of peace has been tastefully decorated with Caribbean art, giving guests a homely feel while in paradise. Woodwork and furniture made from local timbers lend each of the suites and villas an authentic and warm character. All guest rooms benefit from private access to the hotel's lush gardens, as well as the incomparable Long Bay, considered the most photogenic of the island's 33 beaches. For travelers seeking a tranquil disconnection from their regular life, choosing whether to cool off in the infinity pool or the turquoise sea may be the only dilemma they'll face. The chef of the Quintessence Hotel rounds out this unforgettable experience with Franco-Caribbean cuisine created using local ingredients from artisan producers.
