ROUTES DU BONHEUR Victoria Falls, wild Botswana and Cape Town

Water is the theme to this journey, from Victoria Falls and the Zambezi River, to Botswana's Selinda Reserve and Okavango Delta, through to where the Atlantic Ocean meets the Indian Ocean in at the southern tip of Africa at Cape Town. You can expect hippeaux in all locations, other than Cape Town; which is hip and has plenty of water, but where you are more likely to see whales.

1 LIVINGSTONE - ZAMBIA — 3 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Royal Chundu – Luxury Zambezi Lodges

Lodge and restaurant on a river. Upstream from the Victoria Falls, on the banks of the powerful Zambezi River, you find paradise on earth. Royal Chundu, with its two magnificent lodges in the middle of the bush far from the madding crowd, is the place to enjoy peace and quiet in what remains as an untamed corner of the earth. The River Lodge is on the riverbank while the Island Lodge is located on an island, both offering spacious suites with a colonial décor reminiscent of the splendour of the times of the early explorers. Returning from their excursions, guests can sample divine spa treatments with natural African ingredients or enjoy Zambian cuisine, watching stars light up the sky over the river.

2 SELINDA RESERVE - BOTSWANA — 4 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Great Plains Selinda

Lodge and restaurant in a private game reserve. Extending over 32,000 acres and linking the Okavango Delta to the Linyanti and Savute river systems, the private Selinda Reserve embodies Africa's true spirit and, more specifically, that of Botswana. Located within this remote wilderness are Great Plains Conservation's Selinda and Zarafa. Designed in an ecologically friendly manner, Zarafa Camp consists of large, sumptuously appointed tents, recreating the atmosphere of the very first safaris in their traditional style. Selinda Camp brilliantly synthesises the meeting of cultures thanks to its luxurious suites. In this exciting region, you will be able to appreciate the countless wonders of Botswana's wildlife; it's a veritable breeding ground for rare animals where nature has so much to offer. You'll have the great privilege of observing the famous lions featured in Birth of a Pride, the film directed by Derek and Beverley Joubert for National Geographic, as well as endangered African wild dogs, hippos bathing in the lagoons, and large herds of elephants grazing peacefully in the surrounding area. It is a magical show enriched by the most beautiful sunsets in the world.

3 OKAVANGO DELTA - BOTSWANA — 4 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Duba Plains Camp

Lodge and restaurant in a private game reserve. Duba Plains Camp offers guests a setting unlike any other, featuring woodlands, islands and flood plains that shelter thousands of animals, including interesting Kalahari species that enthusiasts come from afar to admire. Located in the heart of the Okavango Delta, in a private 77,000-acre reserve, you will find 5 luxury tents and one 2-bedroom private suite designed to blend into the landscape while also evoking a style of the 1920s. Extremely comfortable and slightly elevated, each one offers private swimming pools, outdoor salas, stunning views over the plains and water channels that can also be explored by 4x4 with a private guide. Great Plains Conservation, the camp's owner, is the only operator on this concession, thus giving guests exclusive access to this wild paradise.
