

ROUTES DU BONHEUR A journey following the sun, from Andalusia to the Algarve

Following the contours of the Mediterranean as it meets the Atlantic: this astonishing Route du Bonheur between Andalusia and the Algarve immerses you in two sun-drenched regions with contrasting cultures. Your adventure starts with the sea glittering beneath whitewashed Andalusian villages as well as Roman and Arabic remains. The journey continues along the gentle slopes of the Costa del Sol, facing the Rock of Gibraltar, before crossing the Guadiana River, the natural border between the two countries, to discover a new world called Portugal.

1 MONTECORTO — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Finca La Donaira

Not far from the Route of the White Villages, the pride of southern Andalusia, Finca La Donaira is perched above the Serranía de Ronda, deep in farming country spanning more than 1,700 acres. A landscape of meadows, ancient oak forests, and Roman and Arab ruins - all creating an atmosphere of contemplative serenity. Designed as a holistic, environmentally friendly haven, Finca La Donaira features a farmhouse and outbuildings, carefully renovated with natural materials, such as adobe, wood and stone, while preserving the original beams and frames. In the rooms and suites with whitewashed walls, the polished floors are brightened with colorful, rustic rugs. Every room and suite of this 111 year old "Cortijo" has been uniquely designed, furnished with rare antiques, custom pieces, and original artwork. Finca La Donaira offers a broad variety of experiences: cuisine crafted with ingredients from the estate's organic farm, relaxation at the spa, yoga classes, and horseback riding with the property's Lusitanian horses.

2 MARBELLA — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

La Fonda Heritage Hotel

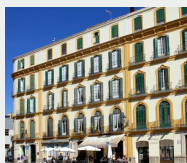

Hotel and restaurant in town. Casco Antiguo, Marbella's historic district, is a charming area with a picturesque atmosphere and quaint little narrow streets. It is also the setting for La Fonda Heritage Hotel, an exceptional hotel composed of three magnificent historic buildings from the 16th century. Reviving the splendour and luxury of yesteryear, this remarkable boutique brings Andalusian charm to life in stylish surroundings, celebrating local culture, gastronomy and hospitality. Its 19 bright and spacious rooms are atypical in design and style, with each paying tribute to the skills of local craftsmen. The gourmet restaurant will delight epicureans with its avant-garde cuisine, blending Andalusian and Mediterranean produce with global flavours.
