ROUTES DU BONHEUR Burgundy: between abbeys and vineyards

A former abbey converted into a Relais & Château property, some of the world's best grand crus, friendly wine bars well stocked with prized bottles, and the lasting memory of the Cistercian Order. Many cultures claim this part of Burgundy as their birthplace. Slowly, our journey trails along the Côtes de Nuits wine region. We get a glimpse of the colourful roofs on the Hospices de Beaune, the remains of Cluny and the medieval village of Brancion. Further along, the south of Burgundy heralds different riches: the region of Bresse brings you unforgettable markets and flavours...

5 BAGNOLS — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Château de Bagnols

Hotel and restaurant in a vineyard. Château de Bagnols, a fortress magnified by eight centuries of French art de vivre, overlooks the Beaujolais vineyards. It all started in 1217, and a monumental Gothic fireplace still bears the date. Today, the eponymous restaurant plays with purity and colour to honour the richness of the Monts du Lyonnais terroir. The château is a voyage into the past with its collection of luminous suites — richly decorated with frescoes and period tapestries and filled with the fragrances of the countryside — which open out to a landscaped garden. They are juxtaposed with the wine cellar that uses wood to create a contemporary design.
