ROUTES DU BONHEUR Around Mont Blanc

Mont Blanc offers so many pleasures! Whether you come to admire its slopes in the summer or when white with snow in the winter, or whether you like winter sports or hiking trails, everything here is focused on nature. You'll pass by a peak called the "Gran Paradiso", hundreds of waterfalls, a Roman aqueduct bridge, and Baroque churches. You'll meet the masters of the mountain pastures, mountain cheese producers, and follow passionate ethnobotanists and snowshoeing, skiing, snowboarding, and boardercross enthusiasts...

1 MEGÈVE — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Flocons de Sel

Restaurant and hotel in the mountains. The hotel's exceptional natural setting on the heights of Megève, the intimacy of the spa, the spirit of the cuisine, the creativity of the chef and the quality of the service unite to make this a truly unique place for a romantic dinner, a lovely lunch with friends or a relaxing and cosy getaway. At the restaurant, three- Michelin-star chef Emmanuel Renaut, a Meilleur Ouvrier de France winner, delivers a cuisine as subtle as it is inventive, which can be paired with any of the many vintages on the wine list. Enjoy as the finesse of the ingredients, the technical mastery of the chef and the interplay of textures marry with delicate seasonings to create a masterpiece.

Weekly closing :
Gourmet restaurant: Tuesday and Wednesday, Tuesday noon and Wednesday noon (high season). "Flocons Village": Monday.

2 CHAMONIX-MONT-BLANC — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Hameau Albert 1er

Restaurant and hotel in the mountains. At the foot of Mont Blanc, the Carrier family (today Pierre and his daughter Perrine) has presided over the destiny of this establishment since 1903 — its history written by their many hands. In the gastronomic restaurant, new chef Damien Leveau follows in Pierre Maillet's footsteps, drawing inspiration for his creativity from the cuisines of the Piedmont, Liguria and Savoy. At La Maison Carrier, enjoy local specialities in the warmth of an old mountain farmhouse or on the terrace facing Mont Blanc. As for the rooms, the contemporary style of the original hotel, the rustic atmosphere of the farm and the intimacy of the chalets in the park, each in their own way, highlight the art of living in the mountains, all while boasting views of the eternal snows.

Weekly closing :

Gourmet restaurant: lunch, Wednesday evening, Thursday evening, lunch from Tuesday to Thursday and Wednesday evening (from July 13th to August 31st). "La Maison Carrier": Monday and Tuesday, Monday (from mid-July to mid-August) (except july and august).

4 BREUIL-CERVINIA — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Hermitage Hotel & Spa

Hotel and restaurant in the mountains. Situated on the south side of the Matterhorn, the Cervinia ski resort is one of the highest in the world, peaking at 4,000 metres, and one of the few to cross the Italian-Swiss border. Choose between slaloming on the Swiss side, or a descent down the trails of the Aosta Valley. The Hermitage, this grand chalet has been designed in the purest of mountain traditions, with interiors of warm brown wood, and equipped with a spa to relax in after a day of intense skiing. The Whymper Suite, designed as a private chalet, boasts breathtaking views of the Matterhorn. Succumb to the beauty of the mountain.

5 VERBIER — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Le Chalet d'Adrien

Hotel and restaurant in the mountains. In a postcard setting with unbelievable views of snowy peaks, Le Chalet d'Adrien seems to cling to the mountain. It overlooks Verbier, one of Switzerland's most charming mountain resorts. An unrivalled ski paradise in winter, its mountain pastures host magnificent hiking trails in summer. Inside the chalet, the matching wood panelling and fabrics, antique furniture, books and unassumingly scattered artwork, create a charming and cosy setting from which you can enjoy the untamed beauty of the pristine landscape. The pool has a view of the mountains, and Spa by Clarins offers many pampering treatments. The restaurants feature the culinary flavours of nearby Italy, mingled with Valais ingredients and wines.
