ROUTES DU BONHEUR Family paradises in the South of France

The south of France is ideal for family discoveries! From underwater trails, jazz concerts and regattas, to horseback rides, zoo visits and ochre mines, the experiences to be shared with children here seem as varied as they are endless. The pleasures of the Mediterranean extend throughout the magnificent landscapes of Provence. You'll go from a cultural visit to an outdoor activity. Under the Mediterranean sun, in a Provençal atmosphere, some people educate themselves or stroll, while others swim, have fun, relax, or strut about depending on their mood of the day...

1 CAP D'ANTIBES — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Cap d'Antibes Beach Hotel

Hotel and restaurant on the seafont. Halfway between Nice and Cannes, in a setting where the Mediterranean takes centre stage, the Cap d'Antibes Beach Hotel is a contemporary architectural jewel. Its minimalist lines are in perfect harmony with the lush Mediterranean vegetation, with the charm and freshness of a garden by the sea, a fine private sandy beach facing the Lérins Islands, and a delightful infinity pool. The original décor of the rooms and suites transports guests on a sensory voyage. The enchantment continues in the restaurant Les Pêcheurs, which looks out onto the sea and offers a feast for the palate as well as the eyes, with a view of the Esterel massif in the distance. The chef offers high-flying, delicate and refined cuisine, made with seasonal products, from local producers, with whom he works hand in hand.

2 LA CROIX VALMER — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Château de Valmer

Hotel and restaurant in the country. Nestled in a six-hectare estate, only 300 m from the sea and surrounded by organic vineyards and Provençal countryside, Château de Valmer is a former family guest house which has, over time, been converted into a luxury hotel. Owners of the property since 1946, the Rocchietta-Montloin family has spent a lifetime cultivating the art of hospitality. Guests can enjoy chic and cosy rooms, tree houses, private residences, and a Michelin-starred gourmet restaurant whose cuisine is inspired by the estate's own organically grown produce. An invitation to relax and unwind, guests can take a path lined with majestic palm trees to bask on a private beach facing the Îles d'Hyères or pamper themselves in the large heated outdoor swimming pool and splendid spa that opens out to the park.

3 FLAYOSC — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Château de Berne

Hotel and restaurant in a vineyard. Château de Berne embodies Provençal art de vivre amid an exceptional setting of vineyards and hillsides, where the light and fragrance of the Mediterranean creates an authentic and evocative atmosphere. Here in the heart of nature, this 1,235-acre wine estate produces wines under the Côtes de Provence appellation. The 18th-century chateau is home to elegant guest rooms and suites, as well as the restaurant, which serves bold and inventive farm-to-table cuisine. Close to the chateau, stone-built villas offer guests more private, intimate stays. Each one has a dedicated butler, and villa guests can also request a private chef to prepare meals using ingredients from the estate. Guests are encourage to enjoy life at their own pace: they can take a wine or cooking workshop, walk or cycle on the surrounding trails, enjoy holistic treatments at the spa or just relax by the pool. As each day unfolds, Château de Berne represents the perfect harmony between nature, wine, gastronomy and well-being.

5 LE PUY-SAINTE-RÉPARADE — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Château de Fonscolombe

Hotel and restaurant in a park. Just a few miles from Aix-en-Provence, Château de Fonscolombe is an elegant, 18th-century national monument, located within extensive parkland, that epitomizes the Provençal art of living. This former family home, with its ochre-colored, Italianate charm, sits on a 123-acre estate that includes its own vineyards. The wines it produces complement the cuisine, with dishes inspired by the daily harvest from the sun-drenched, organic vegetable garden, paired with produce from local artisans. The chef blends the terroir with culinary creativity to truly showcase the region, to the delight of gourmets. Ideal for family vacations, the estate offers spacious rooms and features a children's swimming pool. With numerous activities on site and even more available nearby, it makes for an inspired getaway that's true to the spirit of the south: free-spirited, sunny and convivial.

6 GARGAS — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Coquillade Provence

Hotel and restaurant in a vineyard. Coquillade Provence hotel overlooks something of a living painting—a tableau of vineyards, olive trees and lavender fields amid the gentle hills of the Luberon. This charming Provencal hamlet, with its ochre facades, tiled rooftops and panoramic views of Mont Ventoux, perfectly embodies the soul of the region. Guest rooms—some decorated in an authentic style, others in a more contemporary way—blend in wonderfully with this green setting. In the kitchen, the chef showcases produce from his own vegetable garden alongside local products. His colorful plates reflect the region, which is easy to explore. Several cycle tracks are accessible from the hotel, allowing you to crisscross the lavender fields to the sound of cicadas. Back at the property, its azure swimming pool and 21,500 square foot spa promise intense relaxation, making every stay an enchanting interlude.
