1 DEERFIELD BEACH, FLORIDA — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Royal Blues Hotel

Hotel and restaurant on the seafont. The blue of the awnings stands out against the white of the frontage, reflecting the contrast between the water and the sparkling sands: the Royal Blues Hotel, on the oceanfront on Florida's East coast, is a veritable ode to the sea. Each of this boutique hotel's guest rooms offers splendid ocean views – an invitation to saunter down to the beach or head for the Deerfield Beach Fishing Pier. The flowing lines of the architecture, contemporary works of art and furniture in combinations of wood, leather and marble are all reminiscent of a yacht. Chanson Restaurant, with its creative world cuisine, gives seafood pride of place. Its interior boasts an impressive saltwater aquarium overhead.

Weekly closing :

Restaurant: Monday evening and Tuesday evening.

2 PUNTA CANA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Eden Roc Cap Cana

Hotel and restaurant on the seafont. Its dream location along the coastline of Punta Cana on the eastern tip of the Dominican Republic, its delightfully designed suites and its exclusive Caletón Beach Club attests Eden Roc Cap Cana as a place of ultimate and intimate privacy. Its original architecture is a blend of Spanish colonial style with the elegance of the large seaside villas on the French and Italian Riviera. Nestled in an exclusive enclave, on the white sand shores of the Dominican Republic, Eden Roc Cap Cana is a getaway to meaningful experiences, peaceful state of mind and holistic wellness and rejuvenation. The three restaurants on-property, overlooking the lagoon, by the pool or the beach, offer a range of different culinary experiences, as well, the Solaya Spa proposes a wide range of luxury treatments based on the Island's native traditions and fragrances. Giving its name to the property, a massive and lush tropical garden-grotto is the epicentre of Eden Roc Cap Cana, an exuberant Garden of Eden where guests can experience a romantic special time tasting the Chef's delicacies among other activities offered. 3 SANTA LUCIA — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Cap Maison Resort & Spa

Hotel and restaurant on the seafont. Located near the northern tip of Saint Lucia, Cap Maison is a haven of peace and privacy, nestled in tropical gardens. The property invites guests to relax and recharge in this tranquil and idyllic environment. With breathtaking views over blue ocean waters, the property also overlooks its own private sandy beach. Shady arches, sun-dappled courtyards, trickling fountains and terracotta urns channel a hacienda-like feel that also extends to the whitewashed buildings that house its charming rooms and suites—some of which have private swimming pools. At The Cliff at Cap restaurant, one of the best dining destinations on the island, the chef creates inventive French-Caribbean fusion cuisine, using seasonal ingredients grown by local producers, to be enjoyed as you take in this unique location and stunning panorama. Down on the beach, go kayaking or snorkeling in the pristine turquoise waters; explore the surrounding hills on a run or more leisurely hike; or simply taste the sun by the swimming pool. Finally, indulge in a relaxing treatment at Cap Maison's own spa.

4 ST GEORGES — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Calabash Hotel

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. In the south of the island of Grenada, Calabash has enjoyed the shelter of the palms of L'Anse aux Epines for several decades now. Spread across the garden, the suites and rooms are pleasantly decorated in a classic Caribbean style and open out to the greenery and pristine sand of the beach. The spa, two restaurants — one on the beach and another with gourmet cuisine — and the many activities offered only add to the hotel's family character and the warm welcome you will receive. Committed to the island's sustainable development, the Garbutt family is equally attentive to its relationships with local suppliers and the preservation of the environment.
