ROUTES DU BONHEUR From New York to New England, discover the cradle of the American nation

A journey of real contrasts from the hectic avenues of New York City to the rocky coast of Maine. Ancient and contemporary history of America- from elegant white church steeples to glass skyscrapers. Driving through rural New England, we pass stately mansions and little fishing villages. Vermont's wildflower prairies and Boston's historic buildings come in turn before we reach Maine with its mysterious coves and beaches. In winter, this vast region becomes all about open fires, cosy quilts and birch woods blanketed in snow. With the arrival of milder temperatures, it is a delight to go hiking and enjoy outdoor activities and wonderful musical performances.
