ROUTES DU BONHEUR From Romania to Greece, orthodox treasures and turquoise water

From Romania to the Greek shores of the Aegean, through Bulgaria and Sofia, the route crisscrosses mountains and valleys home to local traditions and towns with a rich cultural heritage, ending in the crystal clear waters of Northern Greece. The itinerary explores different beliefs, illustrated most beautifully by the region's monasteries, which inspire tranquility and serenity in curious travelers.

Le Bistrot Français

Restaurant in town. Le Bistrot Français creates an alchemy of French and Romanian cultures. Inside a 19th-century villa in the centre of Bucharest, with woodwork and paintings on the walls, chandeliers and parquet floors, and even a grand piano, the ambience is undeniably that of Central Europe. On the plates, you will find a modern cuisine featuring the finest ingredients from France and Romania. Breton lobster and Bresse chicken are judiciously paired with truffles from Transylvania or delicious Mangalitsa pork. Expect to taste exquisite local produce, including lamb, Transylvanian black truffles and fresh-caught fish, accompanied by delicious seasonal vegetables and the finest wines from French and Romanian vineyards. 3 ZORNITZA VILLAGE (SANDANSKI) — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Zornitza Family Estate

Hotel and restaurant in the country. Built from the heavy stones and the dreams of a family of aesthetes enamoured with their home country, Zornitza Family Estate produces wine, honey and truffles; cultivates organic fruits and vegetables; and raises its own livestock. The main house boasts a contemporary design, yet traditional materials. The cuisine is amazing; the service delectable. Staying at this property is a unique opportunity to discover southern Bulgaria in all of its luxury and authenticity — from local traditions to the historical richness of its sites dating to the Northern Thrace and ancient Greece, but also to the tastings of stunning wines in the estate's marvellous cellar and the thirteen wineries in close proximity.

4 CHALKIDIKI — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Avaton Luxury Beach Resort

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. This is where the Titans fought the gods, where Mount Athos soars into the sky, and where the Virgin Mary, accompanied by John the Evangelist, came and blessed the mainisland's shores, leading to the many monasteries scattered along its hillsides. Avaton Luxury Beach Resort's contemporary villas are a reflection of this mythological spectacle set within the Mediterranean's garden and overlooking the Aegean Sea. Owner Themistoklis Chantzis affectionately presides over this estate perched above a private beach of cerulean blue. As for the chef, he adds his own touch by flavouring the freshly caught seafood with wild herbs from his extraordinary garden. The sleek style of the private residences provides a wonderful contrast to the unique panorama, whose splendid history is within easy reach.
