The island's spirited sense of adventure will draw you in, its lush forests, turquoise waters and striking landscapes so characteristic of this unique island.

20 Degrés Sud Boutique-hôtel

Hotel and restaurant on the seafont. A delightful colonial mansion, nestling in a coconut grove right at the water's edge, is home to a tastefully appointed, charmingly refined little hotel. The soft, neutral shades of Flamant Home Interiors furniture in its individually designed guest rooms stand in brilliant contrast to the blue of the sea and green of the coconut palms, instilling deep feelings of peace and seclusion. The restaurant, also at the water's edge, serves delicious creole and international dishes. However 20 Degrés Sud Boutique-hôtel has two more treasures in store: the M/S Lady Lisbeth, the oldest motorboat on the island which, when evening falls, takes a party of guests to dine under the stars on the calm waters of the bay.

Blue Margouillat Seaview Hotel

Hotel and restaurant on the seafont. Blue Margouillat Seaview Hotel is a Creole-style property sitting on the heights of Reunion Island's Saint-Leu. Overlooking the Indian Ocean, its horizon stretches into infinity — only a few rare clouds sweeping across the blue immensity. Exotic woods furnish the spacious rooms and suites and decorate the salons and restaurant. The latter is where you can enjoy delicious dishes composed of local spices and flavours. Small inland fish, garden herbs? Here, happiness is epicurean. From the gourmet delights and special attention paid to guests to the individual spa tubs in the luminous suites, you will feel as if in a dream, flying over the vast ocean.
