1 DRUDAS — 1 NIGHT

( 1 property available )

Château de Drudas

Hotel and restaurant in the country. A historical monument, Château de Drudas towers over the Gascogne Toulousaine countryside. Once the summer home of the family of the Counts of Rességuier, lovers of fine poetry, its immense charm shines anew with Françoise and Jean Rossi. The rooms are nestled in an ambience reminiscent of the 18th century, the friezes and bas-reliefs have been carefully restored and the salons are decorated with exquisite hangings. The west wing of the castle, now dedicated to relaxation and well-being, has preserved traces of the time when it served as the servants' quarters. As for the chef, Hippolyte Peters Desteract, he welcomes you into his cosy restaurant Le Verdurier or on the shaded terrace to offer you a cuisine rich in herbs and plants.

2 PUYMIROL — 1 NIGHT

( 1 property available )

Michel Trama

Restaurant and hotel in a village. Contemporary interior designer Jacques Garcia has worked wonders with the décor of this 13th century bastide, that was once home to the Counts of Toulouse. The mood is theatrical and luxurious. Sofas with feet that look like lion paws sit beside ancient floor tiles and velvety wall hangings. There is a touch of the artist Jean Cocteau here too, with an avant-garde chandelier that appears out of a wall. Your itinerary should include visiting the region which is one of the most beautiful parts of France, and sampling the recipes dreamt up by Chef Michel Trama, this extraordinary self-taught starred Chef, who strolls through the Lot-et-Garonne farmer markets looking for the best and the unexpected. His cuisine reveals his love of wholesome food and of life in general. You'll sample notably his potato papillote and his lobster lasagna, a few reasons the restaurant is not to be missed.

( 1 property available )

Château de Mercuès

Hotel and restaurant in a vineyard. Staying in this 13th century château overlooking the Lot valley is a truly unique experience, an authentic immersion in the history of France during the Middle Ages. Built on a rocky promontory, this was the summer residence of the Counts and Bishops of Cahors for seven centuries. Today, the chef draws his inspiration from local producers, and has won an international reputation for working wonders with black Lalbenque truffles and Quercy lamb. The wine list includes the great Malbec wines and vintages produced in the château's very own wine cellars, because before being the owner, Mr. Vigouroux was the wine grower.

Château de la Treyne

Hotel and restaurant on a river. The towers of this château are so close to the river that it feels as if they are floating on it. Located between the Lot, known as the “land of marvels”, and the Dordogne, home to more than one thousand châteaux, the Château de la Treyne is the ideal base from which to set off and explore this fascinating region. The Chef adapts the cuisine of the terroir, based on foie gras or lamb from the Causses du Quercy nature park. ( 1 property available )

La Chapelle Saint-Martin

Hotel and restaurant in the country. Just outside Limoges, there is a peaceful haven where the lush vegetation is at its most beautiful. Time seems to stand still at La Chapelle Saint-Martin, where guests can step back in time and experience what life in the private residence of this 19th century porcelain manufacturer would have been like. Those who are partial to a beautiful landscape will instantly fall in love with the chapel surrounded by 35 hectares of 200 year-old trees. The surrounding countryside is delightful, and the grounds, ponds and old dock are the perfect place for quiet contemplation. While the house and gardens are historic, the inspirational cuisine is refreshingly modern.
