ROUTES DU BONHEUR Paris to Normandy, towards the D-Day landing beaches

A journey that invites you back in time, evoking the Liberation of 1944, allowing you to encounter key destinations from Paris to Normandy, as well as the men and women at the heart of the battle. Your route begins in Paris, in a Relais & Châteaux property near the Avenue des Champs-Élysées. Taking in symbolic locations and historical exhibitions alike, the capital preserves this important heritage. Along the way, you will witness rare documents carefully preserved in modern museums and walk in the shadow of history in sites of profound significance, from the Arc de Triomphe to the American cemetery and beaches of Omaha. History itself beckons.

1 PARIS — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Hotel Balzac Paris

Two minutes from the most beautiful avenue in the world, at the corner of two quiet streets in the 8th arrondissement of Paris, the Hotel Balzac Paris is located in an elegant building from the beginning of the last century. Previously on this location was a 19th-century property which once belonged to the famous French writer Honoré de Balzac. In order to reinvent the Balzac with Parisian elegance, Charlotte de Tonnac and Hugo Sauzay from the Festen architectural studio, have deployed noble materials and created an intimate atmosphere. “Le Balzac perpetuates a timeless Parisian heritage through its classicism. It’s a place full of atmosphere, with a history that we have respected and extended. You have to experience this place to understand it,” say the architects. 1930s-inspired décor adorns the communal lounge, lit by a large glass roof, as well as the rooms and suites, some of which offer views of the Eiffel Tower. After exploring the city, a Japanese spa provides a calming break, offering a hammam or a traditional massage.

Château d'Audrieu

Hotel and restaurant in the country. Château d'Audrieu, located between Caen and Bayeux, is an opportunity to travel back in time. This 18th-century edifice, listed as a historical monument, offers the warm welcome of a family home. The elegantly proportioned château is set in an extensive 25-hectare wooded park with magnificent gardens. Turn the pages of history and discover not only the beaches of the D-Day landings, but also Bayeux and its famous Tapestry of Queen Matilda; Caen, the home of the Dukes of Normandy; Mont-Saint-Michel, a treasure of French heritage; and the gourmet delights at Le Séran, Château d'Audrieu's main restaurant. All the charms of Normandy await you here!
