1 BALTIMORE — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

The Ivy Hotel

Hotel and restaurant in town. The morning coffee enjoyed in the courtyard, the tea served by the fireplace in winter, the library, the music room with its piano: The Ivy is as welcoming as a private home. Built at the end of the 19th century and recently renovated, this beautiful mansion melts perfectly into the historic and prestigious Mount Vernon district, with turrets rising above the trees. Behind the ivy-clad walls and high shining windows this charming boutique hotel is structured around a magnificent staircase, covered by the original skylights, which leads to the guest rooms. In the evening, guests will appreciate the cuisine of Magdalena, one of Baltimore's finest restaurants.

2 WASHINGTON — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

The Inn at Little Washington

Restaurant and hotel in the country. Patrick O'Connell abandoned his dream of becoming an actor for cooking and the "living theater" of the restaurant world. Just an hour's drive from Washington DC, this sumptuous hideaway nestled at the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains is a world-renowned destination for gourmets in the know. The menu spotlights Chef O'Connell's spectacular, refined American dishes, like carpaccio of herb-crusted baby lamb with Caesar salad ice cream, served in dining rooms whose inspired décor creates a wondrous cocoon of luxury. The Inn's rooms and suites are aptly named after America's culinary pioneers, and opulent lounges complete the transformation to an idyllic fantasy world.

Weekly closing :
Hotel: Tuesday. Gourmet restaurant: Monday and Tuesday. "Patty Os Cafe and Bakery": Wednesday and Thursday evening.

The Fearrington House

Restaurant and hotel in the country. Midway between the nation's capital and the historic port of Charleston lies Fearrington House Inn, Restaurant and Spa. The hotel has a relaxed agrarian feel yet cosmopolitan spirit, surrounded by pastures with rare Belted Galloway cows and nestled among exquisite shops and restaurants. Guests can stroll the extensive grounds, enjoy author readings and culinary events, indulge in a spa treatment, browse the boutiques and taste a local brew at a seasonal beer garden or wine and cheese at the wine shop. Not to mention Chef Paul Gagne's exceptional southern-influenced European cuisine, all just a short drive from Chapel Hill, Raleigh and Durham.

Weekly closing :
Hotel: Monday and Tuesday. Gourmet restaurant: lunch and dinner from Monday to Wednesday. Monday noon and Tuesday noon.

4 CHARLESTON — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Planters Inn

Hotel and restaurant in town. Holding court in the very heart of Charleston's famed Historic District, the 64-room Planters Inn is the city's iconic grande dame hotel. Uniformed doormen welcome every arrival, ushering guests into a sanctuary of elegant style and genteel service inside the gloriously restored circa 1844 building. Soaring ten-foot ceilings, dozens of working fireplaces, and a stunning collection of antiques and Baker Historic Charleston décor, including a sumptuous four poster bed in every guest room, create a luxurious ambiance described by Travel + Leisure magazine as "akin to an overnight with well-to-do friends in their old Charleston mansion." There's also more to Planters Inn than meets the eye: A hidden courtyard illuminated by flickering carriage lanterns provides a beguiling entry to Peninsula Grill, the city's foremost dining experience.
