1 LIMA — 2 NIGHTS

Hotel B

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. This summer pavilion, dating back to the Belle Époque, is tucked away in the heart of the Barranco district, a protected historic area next to the Pacific Ocean. Marble, exotic woods, a beautifully columned white façade, open balconies and skyhigh ceilings lit by skylights in the roofs – Lima teatinas – give it a charm all of its own. Its renovation was entrusted to sculptors from the Fine Arts Academy and to an Italian cabinetmaker with a view to preserving and showcasing its rich architectural heritage. Hotel B draws its inspiration from the Bohemian atmosphere of the surrounding district and exhibits works by contemporary Peruvian artists, adding to the hotel's character.

Astrid & Gastón

Restaurant in town. Founded 20 years ago in Lima, Astrid&Gastón has recently moved to a beautiful 300 years old house in the centre of San Isidro district. It epitomizes Gastón Acurio and Astrid Gutsche's dream of sharing their contemporary take on Peruvian cuisine with the entire world. Astrid&Gastón's cuisine draws its inspiration from the traditions and the biodiversity of Peru, and yet never breaks its links with the world around it, responding first and foremost to the challenges posed by the future and by our environment.The tasting menu is a journey throughout Peru's different environment in five parts: a living experience with a hint of magic and sensitivity.

2 PACAYA SAMIRIA NATIONAL RESERVE — 3 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Delfin Amazon Cruises

Luxury cruises on a river. Board one of Delfin's three riverboats to explore Peru's Pacaya Samiria Nature Reserve. The cabins of this triple-decker ship have floor-to-ceiling windows, allowing you to enjoy the spectacle of the Amazon rainforest all day long — whether in the plunge pool, when looking up from your book or while sipping a pisco sour on the upper deck. In the evenings you will be lulled by the humming sounds of the jungle. Fill your days with new experiences: explore the shore by kayak, visit villages, swim with pink river dolphins, hop on a paddle board and enjoy night safaris. On board, guests can enjoy exquisite Amazonian-Peruvian cuisine, adding to your full immersion in the Amazon.
