ROUTES DU BONHEUR Quebec, the call of nature

It's a journey into a natural environment that reinvents itself every season. In Quebec, you are never far from a river or a forest. Its cities, epicenters of a singular culture and identity, are built on a human scale, friendly and festive. Perhaps more than anywhere else, the people of Quebec have been able to create a lifestyle and architecture in harmony with their natural surroundings. Between the two metropolises of Montreal and Quebec City, the "Belle Province" offers a variety of landscapes dotted with nature reserves, and lakes with infinite horizons...

StoneHaven Le Manoir

Hotel and restaurant in the country. Welcome to the Canada of your dreams, where lakes and forests create a magical natural setting. Here, in the Laurentian Mountains' Sainte-Agathe-des-Monts, discover StoneHaven Le Manoir, an exceptional hotel overlooking the Lac des Sables. Founded in 1908, this bastion of elegance—located just an hour from Montreal—has been carefully renovated to highlight the Art Deco spirit of its early days. Its 34 cozy rooms are idyllic, furnished with lovingly restored antique furniture, and each distinguished by its own identity and original touches, as is the intimate spa nestled in the courtyard pavilion. At the gourmet restaurant, Quebecois chef Marc-Antoine Lacasse presents cuisine that celebrates the flavors of the region's finest products and artisans. Savor these delights and more as you bask in the tranquility of the Italian garden—a precious hidden gem surrounding the property—and enjoy nature at its best in the heart of one of Quebec's most spectacular localities: StoneHaven Le Manoir promises a rewarding and refreshing stay in so many ways.

Manoir Hovey

Hotel and restaurant in the country. A stay at Manoir Hovey comes with the promise of an abundance of fresh air in a scenic, unspoiled part of Québec, close to the U.S. This charming manor was built at the turn of the century and modeled on George Washington's Mount Vernon home. It is nestled in English gardens in a forest on the shores of a lake, and there is a romantic and authentic way of life here. Rates include an array of onsite recreational facilities that make Manoir Hovey a destination in itself. The artful cuisine is enhanced by the wine list, which features 900 wines, and an exceptional selection of Québec's finest cheeses. A wonderful getaway in all seasons, only 80 minutes from Montréal.

Auberge Saint-Antoine

Hotel and restaurant in town. Like Charles Dickens, you will be fascinated by the city of Québec, the “Gibraltar of America” with “its giddy heights, its citadel suspended, as if it were in the air, its picturesque steep streets...” In the heart of the first city to be founded in North America, standing on an archaeological site that formerly housed wharves, cannon emplacements and warehouses, the Auberge Saint-Antoine bears witness to the history of this important commercial and military port. Many relics from the French and English colonial times were discovered when the Auberge was built. Now they can be found among the elegant designer interior of this irresistibly charming museum-hotel.
