

ROUTES DU BONHEUR The Cathar Country, a land of history

Although little known to most people, this land is incredibly rich in history. By scanning these hilly landscapes, you'll be able to distinguish the silhouettes of the "Five Sons of Carcassonne", the ancient fortresses of Puilaurens, Termes, Peyrepertuse, Aguilar and Quéribus. Through them, the Cathars left their mark on Catalan soil. From Albi to the foothills of the Pyrenees, passing through the majestic city of Carcassonne and along the Mediterranean shore, this journey takes on the spirit of an odyssey...

La Réserve

Hotel and restaurant on a river. The Queen Mother of England made this charming hotel her base when she visited Albi, the native town of the artist Toulouse-Lautrec. In 2010, Unesco classified this episcopal city, a medieval gem constructed in red brick, a World Heritage site. Just as the royal visitor did, appreciate the gentle way of life, the spacious rooms opening onto the beautiful park, and dinners in the restaurant or terrace, with magnificent views of the river Tarn. With a glass of Gaillac in hand, discover the beauty of post-Impressionist landscapes whilst learning how Albi witnessed the birth of Catharism and, during the Renaissance, supplied pigments to the greatest painters of the age.

Domaine d'Auriac

Hotel and restaurant on a golf course. The Domaine d'Auriac is built on the ancient Carsac oppidum, where the story of Carcassonne, a Unesco World Heritage site, begins. For three generations, the Rigaudis Family has reinvented this 19th-century townhouse, built over the cellars of a Carolingian Abbey – ruled over by calm and fine dining in the shade of the 300-year-old surrounding park. The restaurant at the Domaine serves the original recipe for the typical local “Dieu le Fils” cassoulet. In a region where history, mysteries and legends, such as the story of Abbot Saunière’s treasure in Rennes-le-Château, abound, discover Cathare abbeys and castles whose ruins rise from cliff tops and rocky promontories.
