ROUTES DU BONHEUR The Dreamy Coastline of Connecticut and Rhode Island

Roll down the windows and inhale the salty air on a two-hour journey through Connecticut's so-called Golden Triangle, known as the "new Hamptons." Wind through Connecticut's loveliest coastline, past tidal marshes with nesting osprey, bustling marinas lively with sailboats, and stately homes once owned by sea captains.

1 MORRIS — 2 NIGHTS

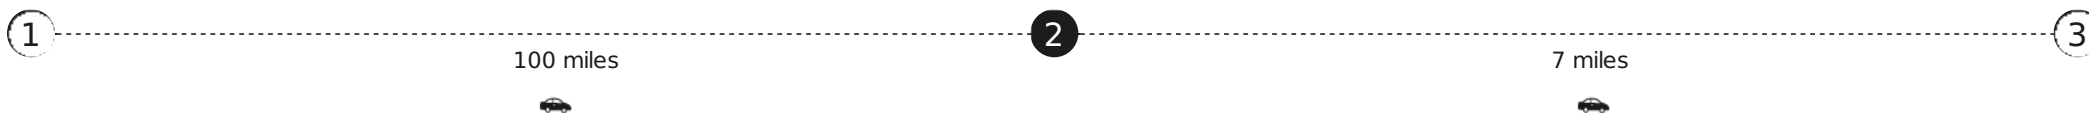

(1 property available)

Winvian

Hotel and restaurant in the country. Nestled among the bucolic valleys and pristine lakes of the Litchfield Hills, Winvian is a unique hotel complex with 45 hectares of lush grounds bordered by centuries-old maple trees. A team of 15 architects designed the 18 original chalets and one suite, each with its own special design and atmosphere. Guests can choose to stay in a two-level treehouse 10 meters off the ground, a lighthouse in the middle of the forest, or perhaps a lodge built around a massive oak tree. In addition to the spa, hot air balloon rides, horseback riding, fly fishing, race car driving and other unforgettable experiences are available, all just two hours from the buzz of New York and Boston.

2 WESTERLY — 2 NIGHTS

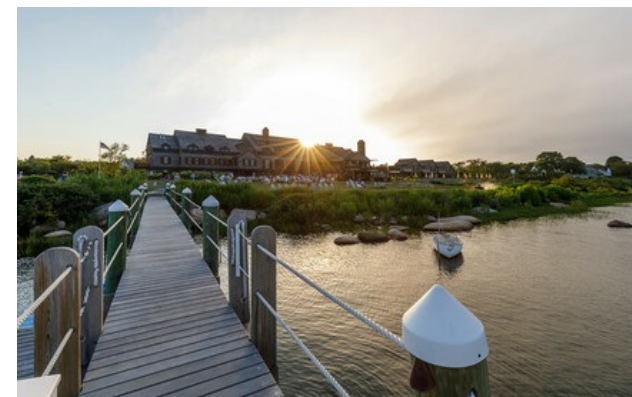

(1 property available)

Weekapaug Inn

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. Weekapaug Inn was founded in 1899 and has been exquisitely restored. It remains faithful to its tradition of providing a warm family welcome. All the charm, peace and simplicity of a home caressed by the Atlantic breeze have been preserved, as has the magnificent surrounding countryside. Depending on the season, guests can enjoy invigorating swims or long walks on the beach, nautical activities, and the opportunity for spotting many different species of birds. The restaurant serves delicious traditional cuisine made from local farm-produced ingredients, adding the finishing touch to this perfect retreat for anyone who loves all that is authentic.

Weekly closing :

Main Restaurant: Monday evening and Thursday evening (from the beginning of July to the end of August).
