ROUTES DU BONHEUR Napa Valley Wine Country and San Francisco

Travel around the idyllic Wine Country, discovering sublime landscapes, micro-climates, and a Mediterranean way of life in the heart of California. Thanks to the porous soil and particularly mild climate, Sonoma and Napa Valley produce a multitude of fine wines. Some 340 wineries can be found along the Napa River. A unique oenological journey for those who love Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay, and Pinot Noir.

SingleThread Farm - Restaurant - Inn

Hotel and restaurant in the country. In December of 2016, chef Kyle Connaughton and his wife Katina, a farmer, opened SingleThread. The restaurant's eleven course tasting menu is driven by the couple's farm produce and personalised to meet the preferences of their guests. With five guest rooms above the restaurant, overnight guests can enjoy luxurious amenities and an exclusive breakfast. Authentic hospitality is a driving principle at SingleThread. "When you come here, whether you're dining in our restaurant or spending the night upstairs, we want you to feel like a guest in our home," says Kyle.

Meadowood Napa Valley

Restaurant and hotel in the country. In the heart of California's Napa Valley, Meadowood invites guests to indulge in a stay where fine dining and wine are fused with passion, where relaxation is coupled with leisure, and where contemplation is paired with a celebration of the senses. Halfway between Sacramento and San Francisco, only an hour's drive away, this exceptional hotel extends across a 250-hectare estate. Convivial and welcoming, Forum serves meals either inside or outdoors against the tranquil backdrop of Meadowood's woodlands. Chef's cuisine is local in its appeal and seasonal in its approach. His seasonally inspired menus highlight local ingredients and the region's remarkable bounty that is a perfect match to the insightful and delectable wine experience to be had under the expert guidance of Kelli White, Director of Education at The Wine Center. A true haven of peace, Meadowood Napa Valley boasts suites with their own terraces and magnificent views of the bountiful nature all around. Take to the hiking trails and enjoy the stunning views of St. Helena. Play tennis with a professional instructor or work out with a personal trainer. And when in need of a break, look no further than the wonderful spa with its suite-style treatment rooms, private relaxation gardens, as well as steam and sauna rooms. Nestled in the Meadowood Napa Valley forest and designed by Howard Backen, it is the promise of an unforgettable moment of wellness and serenity.

3 RUTHERFORD — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Auberge du Soleil

Hotel and restaurant in a vineyard. In the midst of the famous vineyards of Napa Valley, French restaurateur Claude Rouas and his business partner Robert Harmon have created an elegant boutique hotel hidden away in an olive grove reminiscent of Provence. The secluded, romantic maisons with private terraces, custom furnishings and fireplaces are perched on a hillside, framing one of California wine country's most spectacular views above the renowned vineyards below. The Restaurant's Mediterranean-inspired cuisine showcases the best seasonal ingredients of the region, while the spa at the Auberge du Soleil incorporates natural ingredients indigenous to Northern California and the region into each customized treatment. The 15,000-bottle cellar features an award-winning selection of domestic and international wines for guests to enjoy on the terrace as the sun sets on the horizon.

4 SAN FRANCISCO — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

While San Francisco is a spectacle in itself with its roller-coaster streets, emblematic skyline and, of course, Golden Gate Bridge, the city is most associated with true art de vivre. What other American metropolis boasts such a wealth of cafés, wine bars, and patioed restaurants? All the wines of Napa and Sonoma seem to have joined forces between the Mission District and Fisherman's Wharf.
