

ROUTES DU BONHEUR Treasures of the French Riviera

"Azur" is one of the most beautiful and mysterious names in the French language. The word means "the sky or the air", and the coastline it evokes seems to indicate the meeting point between these two infinite spaces. From Menton to Lavandou, travelers will discover fine sandy beaches, rugged coves, seaside resorts, perched villages, and an infinite number of places dedicated to art in all its forms, but especially the art of living. Because along the shores of the Mediterranean, the spirit and myth of the French Riviera lives on...

Monte-Carlo Beach

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. Just a few minutes from the center of Monaco, the Monte-Carlo Beach hotel boldly reinvents the spirit of the French Riviera. Renovated by India Mahdavi in her characteristic vibrant palette, this 1930s gem combines timeless glamour with sustainable living, in the heart of a magnificent pine forest overlooking the Mediterranean. A private beach opens to an Olympic-sized swimming pool lined with vintage parasols and the horizon beyond: here, the blue of the sea is everywhere, inviting you to relax and escape. Guest rooms, which also open to the sea, blend clean lines, graphic art, sensorial textures and other delightful details. Padel enthusiasts can learn or improve their technique on the courts, or join group classes for yoga, pilates and HIIT (high-intensity interval training) sessions. Nature provides inspiration for dishes served across the hotel's four restaurants, including Elsa Marcel Ravin, its gastronomic destination that focuses on local, ethically produced cuisine. Discover a hedonistic refuge whose authenticity is imbued in every touchpoint.

Château de La Chèvre d'Or

Hotel and restaurant in a village. This château, built on the steep slopes of the French Riviera, offers breath-taking vistas of the Mediterranean and has plenty of relaxing activities in store: swimming in the pool, fragrant gardens or Indian massages. The charming rooms are all different. The great classics of French gastronomy as well as Mediterranean specialties can be savoured in one of the four restaurants of the Chèvre d'Or, where the pleasure derived from the fine cuisine is enhanced by the stunning views. After the meal, you can stroll through the cobblestone streets of the medieval cliff-side village overlooking the grandiose panorama of the sea.

Villa Miraé - Cap d'Antibes

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. In this blue paradise, the tranquility is disturbed only by the sound of waves carried from the Anse de la Garoupe below—the cove can easily be reached via a short private path. Amid this unique landscape of umbrella pines and ochre rocks—scenery that inspired artists including Nicolas de Staël and Pablo Picasso—stands a large, beautiful mansion: Villa Miraé. Its guest rooms, adorned with natural materials and a palette of yellow, green or blue, evoke the surroundings. Each one features a terrace or balcony that opens onto the lush Mediterranean garden, where a swimming pool is nestled within. In the summer, the private sundeck on the beach, lined with succulents and laurel, epitomizes this oasis of coolness and calm. The Mediterranean vibe continues with the cuisine served at Villa Miraé's two restaurants, where Chef Mauro Colagreco offers vibrant, refined cuisine.

Cap d'Antibes Beach Hotel

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. Halfway between Nice and Cannes, in a setting where the Mediterranean takes centre stage, the Cap d'Antibes Beach Hotel is a contemporary architectural jewel. Its minimalist lines are in perfect harmony with the lush Mediterranean vegetation, with the charm and freshness of a garden by the sea, a fine private sandy beach facing the Lérins Islands, and a delightful infinity pool. The original décor of the rooms and suites transports guests on a sensory voyage. The enchantment continues in the restaurant Les Pêcheurs, which looks out onto the sea and offers a feast for the palate as well as the eyes, with a view of the Esterel massif in the distance. The chef offers high-flying, delicate and refined cuisine, made with seasonal products, from local producers, with whom he works hand in hand.

La Bastide de Saint-Tropez

Hotel and restaurant in a park. Just a few minutes from the beaches of Ramatuelle and the port of Saint-Tropez, La Bastide is an elegant Mediterranean home. Far from the summer crowds, this marvellous mansion with its four Provençal farmhouses invites you to unwind in the heart of its paradisiacal park full of exotic fragrances. In the restaurant L'Isolotta, the cuisine reflects the colours of Italy and the Mediterranean. On sunny days, enjoy the conviviality of a barbecue for lunch, while staying cool by the pool.

4 LE LAVANDOU — 2 NIGHTS

( 1 property available )

Hôtel Les Roches

Like a boat preparing to set sail, Hotel Les Roches seems as though it is moored in the Aiguebelle Bay in Le Lavandou. Respectful of both its history and its environment, the hotel wholly resonates with the spirit of the Côte d'Azur. Though it exudes classic elegance, the restored building still has a modern character that is especially seen in the choice of contemporary materials. This refined style is found in the décor of the rooms and suites, light-drenched and looking out onto the Mediterranean Sea, stretching onto balconies or terraces. The outdoor swimming pool boasts views of both the sea and Le Levant island and its sisters. Any Mediterranean getaway here is made complete at the L'Oursin gourmet restaurant, offering friendly, family-style meals on the rooftop of the Hôtel Les Roches. After a day at the beach or a seaside outing, the L'Oiseau Bleu spa awaits, a serene oasis that is the perfect place for a moment of pure well-being.
